Market Street® Grocery Store Unveiled and Open in Abilene

Former Albertsons Market converted to offer unique, one-stop shopping experience

(ABILENE, Texas) – The new Market Street® supermarket at 4450 Buffalo Gap Road held a grand opening ceremony Wednesday, July 1 to celebrate the store's new look, features and offerings resulting from a complete transformation of the former Albertsons Market location.

Market Street, known as the place “where everyday meets gourmet,” is designed to provide a unique shopping experience for guests who care about food. The store has extensive options for guests to maintain a healthy lifestyle, as well as everyday items shoppers are accustomed to buying.

“United has been a part of the Abilene community for many years, so we are thrilled to officially introduce our guests to the Market Street experience,” said Robert Taylor, president of The United Family®, the Lubbock-based grocery chain that operates three United Supermarkets in Abilene. “This grand opening is a testament to our dedicated team members, as well as our guests, who have demonstrated tremendous patience throughout the conversion.”

Market Street features a large selection of fresh cut fruits and vegetables, including more than 100 organic options. The store also has an “Ask for a Taste” program in the produce department, which allows guests to sample any product before making a purchase.

In addition, the store has a full-service meat and seafood counter with experienced meat cutters on staff, featuring Prime Dry-Aged Beef. Market Street also offers sushi made fresh in-store daily. The deli has a large “grab-n-go” section with salads, specialty cheeses, tamales, pizza, fried chicken, panini and a variety of hot meal selections to serve at home or enjoy in the store's dining area.

“Guests will enjoy the comprehensive offerings at Market Street, as well as some of the unique features not available in traditional grocery stores, such as in-store dining,” said Wes Jackson, chief merchandising officer for The United Family. “We have teams in every department committed to ensuring we can meet our guests' every need.”

Market Street's commitment to service includes a concierge service, which is available to assist guests with party planning, catering and custom gift baskets. Other notable store changes are evident in the expanded full-service bakery, expanded beer and wine section, bulk foods area and an extensive selection of gluten-free items both in the Living Well section and throughout the store.

Guests will also continue to see shelf tags featuring "healthy attributes" that identify products in 10 different categories, such as low-sodium, heart-healthy, organic, and gluten-free, as well as the company's "Dietitian's Top Pick" program. Shelf tags also include the NuVal™ Nutritional Scoring System, which rates the nutritional value of foods throughout the store on a scale of one to 100. The United Family was the first supermarket chain in Texas to adopt this system. Unique to Market Street stores, guests also have the option to join a free store tour hosted by a registered dietitian.

"Market Street is one of the few grocery stores in the state that has registered dietitians, who are helping guests try to balance busy schedules while still raising healthy families," said Robin Hawkins, director of health and wellness for The United Family. "Guests can take advantage of our in-store tours that focus on different diet and health needs in addition to other resources that help guests make healthy choices at checkout."

If not already members, guests of the new Market Street can sign up for the Rewards program to receive product recommendations, digital coupons and discounts that are individually tailored to their shopping habits, allowing each guest to easily take advantage of relevant offers. Guests can sign up online at www.unitedtexas.com or by using the "United Market" mobile application, which is available for iOS and Android operating systems.

With the completion of the Abilene Market Street and one additional conversion planned for Odessa, there will be a total of 15 Market Street locations throughout Texas: Abilene, Allen, Amarillo, Colleyville, Coppell, Flower Mound, Frisco, Lubbock (3), McKinney, Midland, Odessa, Plano and Wichita Falls.
