Market Street Makes $30,000 Pledge to Prosper’s “Windmill Playground”

FRISCO, Texas – Market Street has made a $30,000 pledge as a Premier partner to the Prosper community’s Windmill Playground at Frontier Park, it was announced today.

Windmill Playground will be the children’s area at Frontier Park and is scheduled for construction in mid-May 2012.

“We are extremely pleased to be a part of the Partner in the Playground Program and help make this dream a reality for that community,” said Kurt McMillan, regional vice president of United Supermarkets LLC, parent company of Market Street. “Prosper is a dynamic, growing community, and we are delighted that Market Street will have a presence at the playground.”

Market Street is a unique shopping experience that combines everyday grocery shopping needs with the unique specialty items, whole-health products and chef-prepared foods that shoppers want. United Supermarkets operates 10 Market Street stores throughout Texas, including D/FW area locations in Allen, Coppel, Colleyville, Frisco, McKinney and Plano.
