FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Feb. 24, 2015

The United Family, West Texas A&M Nursing School To Provide Free Health Screenings

(LUBBOCK, Texas) – As part of its effort to encourage guests to pursue healthy living, The United Family[®] of stores today announced its continued partnership with the West Texas A&M University nursing program to offer guests free health screenings in February and March at the Amigos and United Supermarkets stores in Amarillo.

Senior-level nursing students enrolled at the university will provide six screenings and personalized public service announcements to guests of the Amigos at 3300 East I-40 and the United Supermarkets at 1501 Amarillo Blvd. These health screenings continue the partnership established between the two organizations in January 2014. Guests can visit the two stores for a quick screening during the below times.

Amigos

- Tuesday, Feb. 24 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.
- Tuesday, March 3 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

United Supermarkets

- Wednesday, Feb. 25 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.
- Wednesday, March 4 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

“The United Family is committed to educating guests about the importance of healthy living and the tools available at our stores to help,” said Robin Hawkins, director of health and wellness for The United Family. “The students at West Texas A&M are extremely talented, and we hope our guests take advantage of this unique resource in their pursuit of nutritious lifestyles.”

Every free health screening will include basics such as measuring height, weight, blood pressure, blood sugar and body mass index (BMI). Students who are studying Populations Nursing will also discuss educational topics with guests, including type 2 diabetes, heart health, strokes and more.
