Market Street Makes Annual Apples Donation To North Texas Food Bank

Contributes 5,600 pounds of apples as part of Take a Bite Out of Hunger™ program

(LUBBOCK, Texas) – The United Family®, parent company of Market Street, today delivered a donation of 5,600 pounds of apples to the North Texas Food Bank in Dallas-Fort Worth, as part of its annual participation in the Take a Bite Out of Hunger™ program.

For the fourth year in a row, The United Family is providing food for the hungry in its local communities by donating more than 39,000 pounds of apples to seven local food banks across Texas and New Mexico.

“The United Family’s continued participation in the Take a Bite Out of Hunger program is a way for us to show our commitment to those in need in our local communities,” said Joseph Bunting, Produce Director for The United Family. “We are proud to stand with these food banks as they seek to eliminate widespread hunger.”

In Dallas County, 1 in every 5 people are food insecure, as are 25 percent of North Texan children (304,000 children). Each day, the North Texas Food Bank provides access to 170,000 meals for hungry families, seniors and kids through a network of more than 1,000 programs and 262 Partner Agencies.

This donation is part of The United Family’s participation in the Take a Bite Out of Hunger™ program sponsored by FirstFruits Marketing of Washington. FirstFruits created the Take a Bite out of Hunger™ campaign to help feed the underserved while bringing attention to the problem of food insecurity in the United States.

“Year after year, we are humbled to learn the impact our program makes in communities nationwide,” said Robbin Erickson of FirstFruits Marketing of Washington. “The number of households fed through our program exponentially increases with the consistent support from our retail partners like The United Family.”

Since Take a Bite out of Hunger was introduced in 2010, approximately 1 million pounds of fresh apples have been donated to local food banks in the name of the participating retailers. This year more than ten retailers have joined the Take a Bite Out of Hunger effort with donations going to local food banks throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Through the program, United has provided almost 150,000 pounds of apples to area food banks during the past four years.

Apple donations also arrived today at the Food Bank of West Central Texas, Abilene; High Plains Food Bank, Amarillo; South Plains Food Bank, Lubbock; West Texas Food Bank, Midland/Odessa; Food Bank of Eastern New Mexico, New Mexico; and Wichita Falls Area Food Bank, Wichita Falls.
