FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – April 13, 2015

The United Family® to Offer Guests Tax Day Relief with Free Comfort Food

(LUBBOCK, Texas) – Guests of The United Family® of stores will get a special break on Tax Day when they are treated to free beans and cornbread Wednesday, April 15 at participating United Supermarkets, Market Street and Amigos locations in Lubbock.

The comfort food will be available from 4 to 8 p.m. for dine-in only in the deli section of participating stores. Guests can enjoy one bowl of beans and cornbread per person with no purchase necessary.

“Everyone is in need of a little relief around Tax Day, and we are happy to give back to our guests during the dreaded tax season,” said Robert Taylor, president of The United Family. “The comfort food offer also enables our stores to connect with their individual communities and help family and friends put Tax Day behind them.”

Due to the popularity of the promotion, which debuted at Dallas-Fort Worth area Market Street locations in 2013, The United Family has offered free beans and cornbread chainwide since 2014.

United Supermarkets at 701 Marshall Howard Blvd. in Littlefield, Texas, is not participating in the Tax Day promotion.
