FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – April 22, 2015

Market Street® Brings 200 New Jobs to Abilene

Converted Albertsons Market hiring initiative begins April 29 at Zion Lutheran Church

(ABILENE, Texas) – Market Street® announced today a job fair for the new location, which is scheduled to open in July as a result of a complete transformation of the Albertsons Market on Buffalo Gap Road. The job fair will be held Wednesday, April 29 through Saturday, May 2. Market Street expects to add as many as 200 team members in Abilene to support the bakery, prepared fresh food options, in-store dining space, coffee shop, Living Well section and more.

Job seekers can visit the Zion Lutheran Church at 2801 Antilley Road April 29 through May 1 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and May 2 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. to submit an application and begin the interview process. Market Street will fill available positions in nearly every department, including department clerks, bakers, cooks, floral designers, stockers, meat cutters, checkers and sackers.

“We will conduct the complete hiring process at the job fair – from interviews to extending job offers and completing paperwork,” said Shannon Elrod, director of talent management for The United Family, parent company of Market Street. “We are excited to open Abilene’s first Market Street and proud to bring additional jobs to this community.”

Market Street team members receive a number of competitive advantages, including:

- Weekly pay
- Comprehensive benefits package
- Management and supervisor career paths
- Flexible schedules
- Hands-on training program focused on career development
- College savings program
- Vacation, personal days and holidays (Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas)

Although walk-ins are welcome, job seekers can speed up the process by completing an online application prior to the job fair at <http://www.marketstreetunited.com/jobfair>.
