FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – April 28, 2016

Amarillo Resident Wins $20K in College Tuition from Monopoly Collect and Win Game

(AMARILLO, Texas) – On Wednesday, April 27, The United Family presented the winner of Monopoly's Collect and Win Game, Karen Fogg, with a $20,000 college tuition check to be used for her son's education.

Fogg started playing Monopoly with her office at the beginning of the promotion on Feb. 3. While recently shopping at the United Supermarkets on Soncy Road with her son, Fogg was approached by a man in the parking lot who asked if they were playing Monopoly. When she replied yes, he handed her two tickets, one of which included the two remaining tabs she needed to complete the $20,000 college tuition prize, making her a winner.

"This doesn't happen to people like me, but it did," said Fogg. "I've played Monopoly for many years, but have never dreamt of actually winning. I don't generally have the gift of good luck, but I'll never be saying that again!"

Fogg's 19-year-old son is a student at West Texas A&M University, and the two were shopping for dorm room supplies when they received the winning tabs. Fogg said if they did not have a use for the tuition money, they would have found someone in need who did.

The Monopoly Collect and Win Game kicked off Feb. 3 and will continue through May 3. This is the second year The United Family of stores has offered guests the opportunity to play to win more than $165 million in cash or prizes.
