Market Street® Unveiled and Open in San Angelo

Former Albertsons Market converted to offer unique, one-stop shopping experience

(SAN ANGELO, Texas) – The new Market Street® supermarket at 3121 Sunset Drive held a grand opening ceremony Wednesday, June 29, to celebrate the store's new look, features and offerings resulting from a complete transformation of the former Albertsons Market location.

Market Street, known as the place “where everyday meets gourmet,” is designed to provide a unique shopping experience for guests who care about food. The store has extensive options for guests to maintain a healthy lifestyle, as well as everyday items shoppers are accustomed to buying.

“The United Family joined the San Angelo community several years ago when we took over this former Albertsons location and we are thrilled to officially introduce our guests to the Market Street experience,” said Robert Taylor, president of The United Family®, the Lubbock-based grocery chain that operates Market Street, United Supermarkets, Amigos and Albertsons Market. “This grand opening is a testament to our dedicated team members, as well as our guests, who have demonstrated tremendous patience throughout the conversion.”

The new Market Street includes a full-service meat and seafood counter with experienced butchers on staff, featuring Prime Dry-Aged Beef. Market Street also offers sushi made fresh in-store daily. The deli has a large “grab-n-go” section with salads, specialty cheeses, tamales, pizza, fried chicken, panini sandwiches and a variety of hot meal selections to serve at home or enjoy in the store's dining area.

“Guests will enjoy the comprehensive offerings at Market Street, as well as some of the unique features not available in traditional grocery stores, such as in-store dining,” said Wes Jackson, chief merchandising officer for The United Family. “We have teams in every department committed to ensuring we can meet our guests' every need.”

Market Street's commitment to service includes a concierge service, which is available to assist guests with party planning, catering and custom gift baskets. Other notable store changes are evident in the expanded full-service bakery, Starbucks® coffee shop, expanded beer and wine section, bulk foods area and an extensive selection of gluten-free items both in the Living Well section and throughout the store.

Guests will also continue to see shelf tags featuring “healthy attributes” that identify products in 10 different categories, such as low-sodium, heart-healthy, organic, and gluten-free, as well as the company’s “Dietitian’s Top Pick” program. Unique to Market Street stores, guests also have the option to join a free store tour hosted by a registered dietitian.

If not already members, guests of the new Market Street can sign up for the Rewards program to receive product recommendations, digital coupons and discounts that are individually tailored to their shopping habits, allowing each guest to easily take advantage of relevant offers. Guests can sign up online at www.unitedtexas.com or by using the “United Market” mobile application, which is available for iOS and Android operating systems.

With the completion of the San Angelo Market Street, there are 16 Market Street locations throughout Texas: Abilene, Allen, Amarillo, Colleyville, Coppell, Flower Mound, Frisco, Lubbock (3), McKinney, Midland, Odessa, Plano, San Angelo and Wichita Falls.
