FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Nov. 30, 2016

The United Family Kicks Off Annual Holiday Food Drive in Amarillo on Nov. 27

(AMARILLO, Texas) – To kick off the season of giving, Amarillo-area United Supermarkets, Market Street and Amigos stores will participate in the “Together We Can” holiday food drive. Beginning Sunday, Nov. 27, all locations will accept food and monetary donations, which will directly benefit the High Plains Food Bank.

Between Sunday, Nov. 27, and Saturday, Dec. 10, guests can make a monetary donation at checkout. All Amarillo donations will be collected on behalf of the High Plains Food Bank, committed to hunger relief for families in the Amarillo area. For every $1 donation, the food bank can provide four meals worth of food.

“It’s important to remember that for many families, food is not something that can be taken for granted,” said Mary Myers, communications and community relations manager for The United Family. “The United Family strives to bring cheer and joy to the community through holiday recipes and decorations, as well as through the act of giving back to those in need. We’re humbled to partner with the High Plains Food Bank and deeply appreciate the work they do in our community.”

During the food drive, guests can also donate nonperishable food items at any United Supermarkets, Market Street or Amigos location in the Amarillo area. Collection bins can be found at the front of each store.

Needed items include canned products such as meat, tuna, soup, fruits, juices and vegetables; dry products such as rice, macaroni and cheese, Hamburger Helper®, Rice-A-Roni®, instant potatoes, as well as cereals and peanut butter.
