United Supermarkets Makes $100,000 Gift to Girl Scouts Centennial Sponsor for GS-TOP

(LUBBOCK, TEXAS) . United Supermarkets has made a $100,000 gift to Girl Scouts of Texas Oklahoma Plains to support one of the nation's most treasured and iconic organizations during its 100th anniversary celebration.

Matt Bumstead, co-president of United Supermarkets, LLC, made the announcement and presented a symbolic check at the Girl Scout Cookie kick-off event here recently.

In making the announcement, Bumstead noted the similarities between United and the local Girl Scout council, among them being the geography of their service areas and a strong presence in rural communities. The most important similarity, though, is that both organizations are highly invested in creating a brighter future for the communities they serve.

"It's a partnership that's great for both parties and the communities we serve; we hope to keep it going and growing for many years," said Becky Burton, CEO of Girl Scouts of Texas Oklahoma Plains. "Everywhere you find a United Supermarkets location, there's a Girl Scout troop nearby. It just makes sense for us to work together."

The official 100th birthday of Girls Scouts is March 12, which is celebrated annually as Girl Scouts Day.

Girl Scouts of Texas Oklahoma Plains serves more than 24,000 girls and 8,600 adult volunteers in 81 counties from Fort Worth up through the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles. The Council has regional service centers located in Abilene, Amarillo, Fort Worth, Lubbock and Wichita Falls. Founded in 1912, Girl Scouts of the USA is the leading authority on girls' healthy development, and builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.
