Market Street Offers Guests “Best of Texas” Throughout July

Local grocer to feature favorite Texas goods each weekend in July

(LUBBOCK, Texas) – Market Street invites guests to discover amazing flavors made or grown in Texas during its annual Best of Texas expo taking place each weekend in July. The event will feature top products from the Lone Star State at all 11 Market Street locations in north and west Texas.

Best of Texas attendees and guests will have the opportunity to sample appetizers, entrées and desserts made from products grown and produced throughout Texas. Guests will also enjoy product demonstrations, and Market Street team members will be available each weekend throughout the month to answer questions and provide recommendations.

“Market Street has a rich Texas history and is proud to spotlight the high quality products grown and produced throughout our state and available in our stores,” said Wes Jackson, chief merchandising officer for United Supermarkets, LLC, parent company to Market Street.

Displays will be highlighted throughout the stores to help guests identify featured Best of Texas items. The following is a schedule of items that will be highlighted and sampled each weekend:
