United Supermarkets Makes $30,000 Gift to Support 60th Anniversary of The Children’s Home of Lubbock

April 11 event to feature Duck Dynasty family members

(LUBBOCK, Texas) – United Supermarkets, LLC (United) made a $30,000 gift today in support of The Children’s Home of Lubbock’s 60th anniversary celebration next month.

As a result of the gift, United will be the title sponsor of The Children’s Home of Lubbock’s “Foster Our Future” event, featuring Jase and Missy Robertson of A&E’s Duck Dynasty. The event is slated for 7 p.m. Friday evening, April 11, at the Overton Hotel and Conference Center. It is nearing sellout status.

“We are very pleased to be able to re-affirm our partnership with The Children’s Home of Lubbock, which our company believes is one of the finest nonprofit organizations in our community and with a mission that is close to our hearts,” said Robert Taylor, president of The United Family. “Efforts which help meet the needs of the children of our communities are at the very top of the list of causes we hold dear to our hearts.”

“United Supermarkets has a long history of generosity in this community. We are extremely grateful and delighted that they have decided to partner with The Children’s Home of Lubbock as we celebrate 60 years of helping children, and as we look forward to a future of bringing safety and stability to families in our area,” said Tom Spoons, vice president for development at The Children’s Home of Lubbock.

About The Children’s Home of Lubbock

The Children’s Home of Lubbock is a community of volunteers, workers and supporters, pouring their efforts together to make life better for children who need to see that caring and love do exist in a world that has often been unfair and unjust. Since the Home opened its doors in 1954, more than 6,000 children have been helped through the Home’s services. Praised by licensure reviews as one of the best programs in the State of Texas, the Children’s Home places a strong emphasis on family rehabilitation, with programs of care designed for children and their families.

On any given day an average of 145 boys and girls are in care in the various programs of The Children’s Home of Lubbock.
